REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

The Board of Managers to

The Connecticut Baptist Convention,

Greeting:

The Board of Managers, Rev. Burr N. Timbie, president, and Elbert E. Gates, secretary, submits its one hundred and eleventh annual report, for the year 1933-1934. The regular meetings of the Board and Executive Committee, specified by the by-laws, have been held.

One member of the Board, Rev. John W. Brush, New Haven, resigned, due to removal from the state. He was also a member of the Committee on Christian Education. Whilst death has not broken the ranks of the Board during the year, the Convention sustained a great loss in the death of Mrs. Edward B. Bennett, a daughter of the late James L. Howard, a former lieutenant-governor of the state and a former president of the Convention. She was a sister of Miss Edith M. Howard and Miss Mary L. Howard, president of the Woman's Baptist Mission Society of Connecticut. Mrs. Bennett was deeply interested in the Convention and often expressed that interest by generous "over and above" gifts to the Convention, among these is the automobile for the use of the Russian missionary, Rev. John Daviduk. The scope of her interest was as wide as human need, the whole program of The Northern Baptist Convention and beyond, including financial aid to youth seeking higher education. For upwards of 70 years, she was a teacher in the Sunday school of the former First Baptist Church and Central Baptist Church, Hartford. During the last decade the Convention office was her Sunday school class room.

Finances

The fiscal year of the Convention covers the period from May 1st. to April 30th. The treasurer's books closed in April, 1933, with a deficit of $170.21 and, in April, 1934, with a deficit of $2,091.26.

The economic conditions in the country and world have been reflected in the missionary offerings of the churches to the denomination and the Convention. The Board is happy to report that the income from the permanent funds of the Convention has been reduced only 5½% of the income of the previous year. It may be of interest to the Convention to be reminded of the income received by the Convention from endowment and from the churches, during the depression years. We, therefore, have inserted these figures in this report, as follows:

Income from Funds

1929	$10,106.03
1930	11,097.48
1931	11,285.41
1932	12,580.92
1933	12,571.50
1934	11,800.00

Income from Churches and Individuals

1929	$38,045.51
1930	37,549.94
1931	31,504.18
1932	26,994.18
1933	19,842.64
1934	16,812.13

These figures indicate the stability of the permanent funds, due to the careful and wise investment of funds by the treasurer, advised by the Finance Committee. Factors that caused reduction are the lowering of the interest rate in savings banks, on mortgage loans and the passing of dividends on some securities. The reduced income, from distributable receipts, is not due to lack of industry and publicity in promotion, as the program of the denomination has never been promoted more efficiently than during these years. In Connecticut missionary speakers have told their stories in Convention and Associational meetings and in churches. The increased interest and attendance in the mid-year Association meetings indicate that the program is reaching the people.

Survey Committee

The uncertainty of the financial returns and the reducing amount of income from distributable money of the denomination, and the necessity of your Board to regretfully decline to make appropriations to worthy objects, led to the appointment of a Survey Committee, Walter E. Crittenden, chairman, empowered to make a thorough study of all the departments of the Convention's work, with the view of eliminating, where possible, reducing appropriations or strengthening, where the outlook is more promising. This Committee will report at the present meeting of the Convention.

Commission of Fifteen

The Northern Baptist Convention, with which The Connecticut Baptist Convention is affiliated, took similar action in 1933. The Commission of Fifteen was created and a monumental task was committed to it, including denominational organization, relationship between societies, budgets and methods of raising denominational funds. The Commission reported in 1934. The adoption of the report in amended form, authorized changes in organization, including names of Boards, etc. The reorganization is set forth in the accompanying Graph. (As last page of Report.)

The Commission's report also deals with the budget and the raising of denominational funds. In regard to budgets, it states that on or before November 1st of each year, each cooperating and affiliating organization shall submit its proposed budget for the next ensuing year, and other information respecting its financial plans to the Finance Committee which shall then refer the assembled budgets to the Budget Research Committee for study and report back to the Finance Committee. Provision is made for the adjustment of budgets in the event of the dissatisfaction of any of the parties concerned.

In the method of raising denominational money, the following method was adopted. Each organization may secure designations from individuals. After 85% of the budget is raised, receipts from undesignations cease for the organization affected until all the organizations reach the 85%. Designations can still be sought until 100% is reached. After that, designations count on the next year. If the 100% is reached, additional receipts from undesignated sources do not count on next year. Non-donation or income from funds do not help to reach the 85%. Designations are to be sought from individuals only. Each organization, including State Conventions, will seek designations. All receipts from designations and undesignations be sent by the Collector, Rev. H. B. Sloat, to the New York office.

Owing to the above changes in denominational organization the Board appointed a committee, Rev. Ellis Gilbert, chairman, to make the necessary changes in the by-laws of the Convention. This committee will report at the present meeting of the Convention.

Annuities and Legacies

The Board calls attention to the matter of annuities and legacies and would be pleased to receive annuities from anyone and assure a high rate of interest, as seen on the inside cover of the front page of the Annual, and also appeals to people in the making of their wills to consider the work and need of the State Convention. The State Convention is the arm of the local church reaching out into all parts of the state to help strengthen a sister church, to plant new churches and to work in the cities and elsewhere among the foreign born.

Aided Churches

The program of work among Aided Churches has been carried on as usually during the year. The reports from these churches will be found in the Summary of Reports of Aided Churches in the Annual.

There have been some changes in the pastorates of the Aided Churches. Rev. Claibourne Johnson, Second Church, Bridgeport, has moved to Ohio. Rev. F. W. Howell, of the Dunham Memorial Church at Mansfield Depot, has gone to Massachusetts. Rev. R. L. Walker has given up the work in the Rockville, First African Church, but continues as pastor of the Willimantic, Calvary Church. Rev. Axel F. Wall has given up the pastorate of the Swedish Tabernacle Church, Waterbury.

All of the Aided Churches came under the investigation of the Survey Committee which will, no doubt, have some recommendations to make to the Convention.

New Americans

All of the New American work has been continued through the year without change, except in the case of the Hungarian Mission in South Norwalk. Professor E. L. Kautz, of the International Seminary, New Jersey, was pastor for a time. He was called to Pennsylvania. The mission has not had an Hungarian pastor since that time. An effort is being made to link the mission more intimately with the First Church, South Norwalk. The people are invited and, to some measure, have accepted the invitation to worship with the First Church people. The children, all of whom speak English, have been made welcome in the First Church Sunday School. However, the mission people are still anxious that some provision should be made for them to have preaching services in the Hungarian tongue. For a summary of Reports from Missionaries—New Americans see the Annual.

Suffield School

Suffield School opened its school year with increased attendance. The Connecticut Baptist Convention Endowment Fund has now reached the amount of $35,688.64. The continuation of the building of this fund is dependent upon the action of the Convention, which each year votes that a sum of $3,000.00 be added to the missionary quota of the Convention. The percentage paid to the school to be fixed by the relation of the $3,000.00 to the state quota. The Board so recommends this year.

Connecticut Baptist Education Society

The Connecticut Baptist Education Society, Rev. Ellis Gilbert, president, and Rev. Major L. Johnson, secretary, continues to function in the interest of young men and women being educated for life service in the church. During the year the Convention paid to the Education Society the sum of $1,265.00.

Affiliated Organizations

The Convention is affiliated with the Woman's State Mission Society, Miss Mary L. Howard, president. The affiliation includes mutual representation of the Society and the Convention on the Boards of each.

The New England Baptist Conference, under whose auspices the Ocean Park School of Methods is held, is aided by a small appropriation from the Convention. The Convention has representatives on its board of directors.

The Convention also makes an appropriation to the Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education and is represented on the Board of the Council by the Committee on Federation of Churches.

The Convention is interested in the work of the Men's State Council which held a very successful Outing and Conference, at Niantic, in September.

Publications

The Connecticut Baptist. The Board urgently advises the churches to enlarge by subscription the circulation of the state paper. The action of the Convention one year ago, making an additional appropriation for the paper, strongly indicates the splendid service the paper is rendering in the promotion of the program of the Kingdom.

Missions, edited by Dr. Wm. P. Lippard, is still in the forefront of missionary publications of the Christian world. Baptists have reason to be proud of their missionary magazine. It needs and it deserves the support of every Baptist and Missions should be found in every Baptist home.

The Watchman-Examiner, a weekly publication, and the Baptist World, semi-monthly, are the only Baptist periodicals carrying denominational news and inspirational articles and should have the support of the members of Baptist churches.

The Board urges again consideration be given to The American Baptist Publication Society when the churches are investing in Bible, hymnals, books of all kinds, periodicals for Sunday School and Young People's work, all of which may be obtained from our own Society. In the event that publications of other societies are desired, the churches or groups may purchase them through the Publication Society and thereby the Publication Society gets a commission. Our loyalty to this Society is due because in the first place it is our own Society, in the second place, its publications are on a par with the publications of other houses and the Society is cooperating financially in the support of our Connecticut Department of Christian Education. During the last year, or more, the Society has continued the children's worker in the state without financial cooperation of the Convention.

Recommendations

The Board recommends that the Convention make continuous endeavor to collect, or to strongly advise, clerks of Associations and churches to carefully examine all printed or written records or pamphlets, and of early religious journals, that may be in their possession. Valuable historical material should be deposited with the Convention or the Baptist Historical Society, or in some safe depository. These old records are very valuable and should not be destroyed or lost.

The Board recommends that each church avail itself of the carefully prepared plan and materials of the denomination for a genuine Every Member Canvass for local and missionary budgets.

The Board recommends that the Convention charge the Committee on Ministerial Standing to submit to the Convention a standard of qualifications and training to govern the committee in its examination of candidates for the Christian ministry. Our Convention has no formally adopted standard. One was submitted to the convention in 1918. It was tabled and has not since been taken from the table.

The Board recommends that the first or second Sunday, following this annual meeting, the churches be requested to emphasize the Convention work. This report and the story of the proceedings of this meeting could be used as a basis for an address. To this end, we include a report of the scope of the Convention service:

The Convention service covers all Baptist interests within the state. It is affiliated and cooperates with The Northern Baptist Convention. It holds friendly and financial relations with Baptist organizations and interdenominational societies in Connecticut. Its service includes advisory and helpful contacts with churches needing financial assistance, seeking new pastors and setting up and carrying on promotional, evangelistic and educational programs, the care of real estate—to which it holds title, covering all of it with adequate insurance and providing for necessary repairs. It also helps, when possible, worthy qualified ministers seeking pastorates. It supervises and materially aides churches and missions among the "New Americans", administers the funds of the Convention, permanent and operating, and acts as trustee of funds the income of which is payable to churches or individuals. Your Board carries on the administration, financial, missionary and fraternal activities of the Convention under the direction of the Finance, Aided Churches, New American, Evangelistic Committees and the general secretary. The Convention, through the Missionary Committee, now known as the Connecticut Board of Promotion, Rev. Horace B. Sloat, director, carries on all the promoting of the missionary program of the denomination, collects the money, and directs the setting up of special meetings, including the mid-year meetings of the Associations. This department is financed by a separate budget. The Christian Education Department, financed by the Convention in cooperation with The American Baptist Publication Society is under the direction of the Committee on Christian Education and the director of religious education, Rev. O. P. Campbell. This department supervises the educational work in the Sunday schools, in the churches, the young people's work, the Summer Assembly at Storrs, daily vacation schools, and all phases of religious training in the churches.

"Live It Through"

The Northern Baptist Convention at the Rochester meeting voted to continue the "Live It Through" program of the preceding year. This program is an echo of the first century or New Testament times and therefore should appeal to Baptists. Your Board is in accord with every movement that tends to the deepening of spiritual living. Contacts with the Bible, religious and missionary periodicals and good literature: contacts with God through prayer: contacts with the great program of the church through personal effort and generous giving will strengthen the individual and thereby make the church a greater power for good. The world needs the Christ and his church today. The problems that confront humanity are voices calling to the church for deeper consecration and more daring and sacrificial leadership and living. Problems are opportunities and opportunities are responsibilities. The world of tomorrow will be fashioned largely by the ideals, principles and practices of the church of today. "Let us then be up and doing", obedient to the Master's word: "Go—evangelise."

Respectfully submitted,

ELBERT E. GATES,
General Secretary.

The Connecticut Baptist Convention,

Hartford, Connecticut.

Dear Sir:—

We have checked the security holdings of The Connecticut Baptist Convention for the period May 1, 1933, to April 30, 1934, and the financial transactions connected therewith as recorded in the books, accounts and records of the Hartford National Bank and Trust Company, Treasurer of said Convention, and have found them correct.

Auditors for the Convention.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF MISSIONARY COOPERATION

For Year Ending April 30, 1934

To The Connecticut Baptist Convention:

The Committee of Missionary Cooperation herewith submits its tenth annual report for your consideration. There is neither time here, nor space in the Annual for a complete record of all the promotional activities carried on by your committee. A report cannot tell the whole story. This report falls into two parts. The first part deals with the major promotional activities sponsored by the committee to stimulate greater interest in missions on the part of the churches. The second part reveals the financial production of the churches—the money contributed by the churches to help project the program of Jesus, as Baptists understand it, into all the world.

Approximately ten years ago the laymen of the denomination were aroused to a new interest in the work of the local church. From modest beginnings that interest has grown until our men are organized to render more effective service in the local churches. In recent years our State Men's Council has sponsored an "Outing and Conference" in September to stimulate interest in the denominational program. In September, 1933, we met at the Norwich Inn, for the second time. (Team: Dr. J. C. Robbins, New York, and J. A. Patch, Mass.). In three years the attendance had grown more than 300 per cent. Each year a men's banquet is held in connection with the State Convention. Last year it was held in the Wauregan Hotel, Norwich, with more than 200 men present. Speaker: Dr. A. W. Beaven, Rochester. Since that time, James L. Case, the New London Association representative on the State Council, has entered into his eternal home. His passing was a distinct loss to both our national and state work. To some of us who worked with him for more than twenty years there is a sense of deep personal loss. The Central Baptist Church, Norwich, in which he served with rare devotion, has perpetuated his memory in the establishment of the James L. Case Missionary Memorial Fund, through which he will continue to minister in all the years that are to come.

The resourcefulness of Baptists is the marvel of all time. We have the happy faculty of coining devices and slogans to rivet attention on important features of our work in the interests of achievement. One year, "Pray It Through" rang from coast to coast. Last year, "Live It Through" sounded out the challenge that caught the imaginations and hearts of many of our people. To stimulate the "Live It Through" program in Connecticut, the Presidential Party, consisting of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Abernethy, Washington; Dr. F. W. Padelford, New York, and Dr. G. Pitt Beers, New Jersey, visited Hartford, on December 6th. At the five sessions, including the luncheon and the woman's banquet in the evening, in honor of Mrs. Abernethy, the attendance was large and the interest most remarkable, notwithstanding the inclement weather. Said President Timbie, at the close of the day, "It was like an old fashioned revival in its powerful appeal." The "Live It Through" program received a great impetus through the messages of these consecrated leaders.

In 1927 we began the January reading program, using a booklet, provided at the expense of the denomination and distributed to the churches through the Hartford office. The interest, in this method of imparting missionary information, has grown from year to year, until in 1932, we distributed some 7,000 copies of "Streets" to the churches. Last year the budget for printing did not permit the free distribution of "Contrasts", so a charge of five cents was put on the pamphlet, which really cost our churches in Connecticut three and one-half cents per copy. We distributed 4500 copies. This demand indicates a widening interest.

In January, 1926, the first Mid-Year Meeting was held in the Fairfield Association. The following year Mid-Year Meetings were held in all the Associations. Since that date they have grown in attendance, interest and influence, being now one of the most important methods of promoting our missionary program. Last year the program was varied a bit from that of former years by devoting the major part of the time to a consideration of missionary education "Methods and Materials". The members of the team were: Rev. Floyd Carr, New York; Rev. F. W. Harding, Assam, and Mrs. Lewis A. Brown, of the Congo.

In addition to what is done by the office staff in promoting the denominational program, through its contacts with the churches, there is provided at the expense of the denomination, deputation speakers who cover many of our churches and associational group meetings. Last year the work of deputation speakers in our state was most impressive, both because of its quality and scope. Fifteen national leaders, representing several of our national societies, contacted 46 churches and 11 associational groups. Three state leaders contacted five groups and one church. Seventeen missionaries, representing South India, East China, Assam, Burma, Congo, Bengal-Orissa and Latin America contacted 34 churches and 26 associational groups. Other contacts were made on the initiative of local churches.

Through the use of literature, slides, silver gift boxes, Read It Through cards, Christmas envelopes, Easter envelopes, posters, correspondence and conferences, your committee has sought to increase the dissemination of missionary information; to foster the ideals of missionary education and to stimulate a larger participation on the part of the churches in the financial support of missions at home and abroad. The record of the giving of the churches follows:

Hartford, Conn., July 17, 1934.

Reverend Horace B. Sloat, Agent

While the above figures show a decline of nearly thirteen per cent, as compared with the receipts of the previous year, this fact should give us pause, in "a time like this", nevertheless, they indicate a very real and tangible interest on the part of the churches in a program of world redemption.

Since 1929 the good ship Missions has experienced rough sailing, because of the breakers on the economic sea. The navigation was somewhat hindered for a time by the reaction to the appraisal committee's report on Foreign Missions, in which was suggested the adoption of a new and more modern log book in which to record the speed of our good ship Missions. Then, to cap the climax, while in mid-ocean, some of the crew mutinied under the Captain in 1932 and demanded a reorganization of the company responsible for the ship's voyage. While the reorganization may have been necessary and was accomplished at Rochester, the air of uncertainty, all the while, did not make for smooth sailing. Yet, let it be recognized, we are still sailing, the morale of company and crew was never better. With the continued cooperation of the Woman's Society, the State Men's Council and the churches "in a time like this" we can, and your committee trusts will, make the port of adequate support of our world encircling missionary program.

Respectfully submitted,

For the Committee,

(Signed) HORACE B. SLOAT, Director.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Each year the goals of our educational program are more clearly apparent, and our methods of attaining them are better understood by pastors, teachers and parents. It is to this end that all our efforts are devoted.

Office and Field Work

The director spends about two-thirds of the days in the office and study, and about three-fourths of the evenings, teaching leadership training classes, meeting with committees, and participating in conventions and conferences. More than ten thousand pieces of literature have been distributed. Our people have had the latest and best programs and teaching helps constantly brought to their attention.

Committees

Our State Education Committee is the group responsible to the Convention and The American Baptist Publication Society for the work of this department. The director submits reports and recommends plans and projects to the state committee for their revision and endorsement. All important matters affecting policy or expense are referred by this committee to the State Board in the form of definite recommendations.

The director has also served on the state committees on Evangelism and Social Relations, in order to coordinate their activities with our educational program. The Social Relations Committee, under the leadership of Rev. Sankey L. Blanton, as their report shows, has been active in producing a number of articles for The Connecticut Baptist and in keeping our denomination in touch with the other agencies of the state dealing with the pressing issues of the day. The Committee on Evangelism, led by Rev. J. J. Allen, has reinforced the growing emphasis on the spiritual aims at the center of our program of education.

In addition to these committees the director has served as chairman of the staff of the State Council of Churches and Religious Education. This committee coordinates the field work of the state directors of religious education serving the major denominations. We have served on the program committees for several conventions and conferences set up for the state and county areas. Much time was very profitably spent in helping set up leadership training schools in various communities and programs for our Summer Assemblies and training schools at Storrs, Ocean Park, and Winnetoesaukee. The director is also a member of committees on adult education for the State Council of Churches and Religious Education and for the field staff of The American Baptist Publication Society. The important biennial meeting of the field staff of The American Baptist Publication Society was attended in Chicago last February.

Young People's Work

Outside of their activities in the local church there are two outstanding attractions for the young people. The day of conference and banquet fellowship at the annual meeting of The Connecticut Baptist Convention is bringing appreciation, inspiration and enthusiasm for the church and our denominational missions to more than 400 in attendance each year. The other event of major interest is the eleven days in the Summer Assembly at Storrs. This has come to be regarded in the churches participating as the most valuable single project in the young people's program and one of the outstanding features of our State Convention work. This program in its entire set up and administration aims to give the young people a real experience of Christian living which reveals to each one a vision of the highest possibilities for his life, and inspires him with a persistent urge to live up to the vision. A staff of well trained leaders with experience and understanding in the fine art of guiding youth in the most critical problems and life decisions live with them in the most intimate and helpful confidences of their lives. They discuss freely their ideals of morals, business, love, religion and life work. They are guided in their plans for the completion of their education. They are given training in the best methods of church work and inspired with a zeal to serve the church and her world-wide program. There was an attendance of one hundred thirteen, a ten percent increase over last year.

Ocean Park

The New England School of Methods, sponsored by the New England Baptist Conventions, is the same type of summer assembly program as we conduct at Storrs. There was an attendance this year of about 600, but our Connecticut delegation was entirely too small. In this Conference, your director with two other persons was given the task of introducing an innovation in summer assembly work. It was a form of teacher supervision adapted to the summer conference situation. It proved to be more agreeable than we anticipated, resulting in several very definite improvements in the work of the teachers and more especially in the conference program and the facilities for better teaching. It is probable that this feature will be introduced in many of our assemblies.

Vacation Schools

From the records received there appears to be a small increase in the number of churches having vacation schools. A considerable number of those churches have not had vacation schools before and several dropped off the list this year. A large number of communities and churches were approached by the state directors and given counsel and assistance in organizing the schools and in securing the proper leadership and curriculum. A one-day conference was conducted for workers who came in large numbers from all parts of the state. It has been a successful season in vacation school work.

Christ in the Life of the Home

The Protestant churches of America have chosen as a theme for special emphasis in the educational work of this year "Christ in the Life of the Home". There are definite plans for the more positive application of the spirit and teachings of Jesus in the life of the home. Parent-teacher conferences, parents study and discussion groups, family worship, training young people for successful marriage, and the introduction of good literature, are among the projects being promoted for the enrichment of Christian family life. This is a timely issue for "Such a Time as This" when one of the most urgent needs is for Christian parents fully prepared to rear Christian children. We commend it to our churches.

Uniting Our National Agencies

In recent years we have been greatly agitated over the problem of so many agencies and unrelated societies holding Conventions and seeking to function in the churches. It takes so much time attending conventions and familiarizing our people with new programs and schemes of organizations, that there is little time left for guiding our local church leaders in the discovery of the central purposes of all our efforts and the personal religious experience more essential than anything else to the creation of effective local church programs. It is in the interest of economy, both of money and time, and the simplification of organizations and programs, that The Northern Baptist Convention has created a Council to gradually coordinate and merge our national agencies of Christian Education. It is expected that this will be accomplished in three years.

Organization for Action

For several years the Department of Christian Education has been seeking to focus attention on vital religious experience and its application to the lives of growing persons. Out of this approach is emerging organization with unity of purpose, flexibility and power. Old methods of teaching and organization that have given us so many fixed but conflicting standards, each seeking uniformity, are giving way to a greater unity of spirit and more dynamic and adaptable methods.

Using Our Materials

Our programs, such as the "Pioneer Plan" for intermediates, or the "Commission Plan" for young people, are not organizations but guides to local church groups in creating a youth program adaptable to their needs. The New Keystone Lessons differ from the older types, not so much in their Biblical contents, as in their teaching procedure. The new lessons require more than drill and recitation of written contents. They are guides to teachers and pupils in the more interesting and effective procedure of learning the teachings of the Bible through its application to their personal religious experience carried over into actual life situations. It is apparent that this method of teaching is not as simple and easy as the old drill and recitation. Neither is it as easy to create or adapt organization to local needs as it is to accept some ready made machine. It requires a more inspiring conception of teaching, more lesson preparation, more teacher training and more devoted Christian personality to successfully use the new materials and thoroughly enjoy teaching the better way.

We rejoice in the many evidences of a growing understanding in our churches of the possibilities of our educational program, and the increasing number of teachers and pastors who are being qualified through training and experience for this service.

Respectfully submitted,

Director of Christian Education.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S WORK

For 1934

Although this department is feeling keenly the reduction in budget, there are evidences that it is still alive, and the director hopes that this year the old aggressiveness may be seen in our churches.

In the spring the usual questionnaire was sent out to the churches and without the customary follow-up and the special effort to get a 100% return, 58 of a possible 100 responded—and on time. This is almost equal to last year. Several new churches registered their interest in the children's division work, and the number of key-leaders now stands at 92.

Contacts with the churches have been through personal correspondence with key-leaders and teachers. Five circular letters have been sent out and some materials. For the sake of economy the latter have been sent to those who the director feels really desire such materials and not to all the churches as was formerly the case.

One encouraging sign was in the number enrolled at our Summer Assemblies in the children's division specialization courses. Classes at Storrs were much larger than usual and although the pupils were many of them entirely without previous experience, more of them worked for and received standard credit than ever before.

The outstanding project of the year is the promotion of a plan for teacher improvement sponsored by the Children's Division of the Publication Society. It is called "My Program of Growth", and has risen out of the conviction that in our emphasis on materials, equipment and modern method, we may have overlooked the most important factor in teaching religion, the teacher-personality. Though a church may have the very best in teaching equipment, mere "things" will never lead our boys and girls to an experience of Jesus as the Saviour. The teacher—her personality, her attitudes, her training—is of utmost importance. "My Program of Growth" comes to our Baptist workers with children as a definite challenge to make ourselves better teachers. Twelve items are listed, three of which are to be checked as forward steps to be attained by the end of the school year or before, then three more until all have been reached. At the head of the list stands personal spiritual growth, the daily period of devotional meditation. Others are professional reading and study, attendance at the conferences and leadership training schools, personal contacts with the homes of pupils and loyalty to the whole church program. This program is being adopted enthusiastically throughout the Northern Baptist Convention. A number of Connecticut workers have already adopted it.

Three times this year the director has been called on by the State Council of Churches and Religious Education to serve in conferences. She has been glad to cooperate.

I wish to express to the State Convention office and to my key-leaders my appreciation of their continued interest and support of our children's work, and offer a prayer that the year we are just entering may be one of deeper consecration and greater achievement than any in the past.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) JENNIE REED DIXON,
Director of Children's Work.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S BAPTIST MISSION SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT

October 12, 1934.

The W. B. M. S. of Connecticut is "Holding its own" as they say. There are some gains and some losses but our zeal and courage are unabated.

Though one of the smallest of the states, Connecticut occupies a position of considerable importance in the New England District. This year our fine White Cross Report received especial commendation from the New England District Board.

We viewed with some apprehension the changes in the Denomination which were promulgated by the Commission of Fifteen. Some time was taken at the Annual Meeting in May in a discussion of the new policies and the general opinion seemed to be, that we wished the changes to be more gradual.

Co-operation between our Woman's Work, and the projects of the Denomination, is being emphasized by our Secretary Director and her associates. The plans of the various secretaries follow along the lines laid down by the National Boards, although they use their own ingenuity and skill in bringing the results. We have always found that the most loyal co-operation existed between this society and the president and secretaries of the State Convention, and we are profoundly grateful for their sympathy and counsel.

Among the special denominational projects was the use of the Mite Boxes. They are again sent out, this time in the form of bricks to "Build the Wall".

The W. W. G. were especially happy this year in being able to have a House Party again and, in spite of the severe storm, enthusiasm was at white heat.

The Women had their usual House Party at Montowese House, and the large attendance testified to the importance of this gathering in the lives of our women. Mrs. Esty was there to instruct and inspire. Also Dr. Hilda Crosby, our beloved Connecticut missionary from Shanghai, China, who gave us intimate glimpses of her work.

Our Annual Meetings show an increasing attendance every year, and the Lunches, under the able leadership of Mrs. Leroy Bennett, are becoming a delightful part of the day.

In Baptist Churches all over this state, women affiliated with this society, are working and praying for Christ's Kingdom. It may be that if we are as sincere and earnest in prayer and meditation as that young Jewish maiden of old, we shall find that we too are here for "Such a time as this".

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. BIDWELL,
Corresponding Secretary.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION IN CONNECTICUT

"We feel that there is a steady increase in interest in missionary education in the state not altogether adequately indicated by the statistics. Missionary reading, which we believe is one of the best ways of arousing enthusiasm for missions, shows conspicuous gains. Men as well as women are participating in the reading contest in several churches. It is noteworthy that Central Church, Hartford, which has the largest resident membership in the state, was awarded the loving cup in Hartford Association for having the largest number of points in reading for each of its resident members.

"Among the eleven churches conducting Schools of Missions, Blue Hills, Hartford, church solved the problem of leadership by using their department leaders as teachers of mission study classes during the Sunday School period for six consecutive Sundays.

"Thirty-seven churches qualified for Missionary Education Standards, nine less than the previous year, but those 37 making a better record in points than all the 46 the year before.

"The goal toward which we reach and which we hope eventually to attain is 'a missionary program in every church in Connecticut'."

Respectfully submitted,

IVAH M. GARDNER,
Secretary of Missionary Education.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Resolved that we express to the members of the Central Baptist Church of Hartford and to its Pastor, Dr. John Newton Lackey, our deep appreciation of the splendid hospitality extended to the Convention.

Resolved that we extend our appreciation to the newspapers of Hartford for their gracious and generous treatment of the Convention.

Resolved that

Whereas, The Connecticut Baptist Convention is one of the constituent denominational organizations composing the Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education, and

Whereas, The Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education is, in reality the representative of its constituent bodies in their cooperative work in the fields of comity, social relations, and Christian education, and

Whereas, the cost of this inter-denominational program of cooperation is approximately one-half of one percent of the total monies contributed by the membership of the local churches for their local, state and world-wide work,

We approve the Budget Finance Plan of the Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education and recommend that each local church contribute an amount equal to at least one-half of one percent of its combined current expense and benevolent budgets toward the support of the city, county and state councils of churches and of religious education.

Resolved that we declare ourselves in favor of amendment of our State Liquor Control Act to:

(1) Raise the age of persons to whom liquor may be legally sold from 18 to 21 years.

(2) Prohibit the employment of minors in places where liquor is manufactured or sold.

(3) Prohibit the sale of liquor on Sunday in any place, excepting drug stores.

(4) Prohibit the sale of liquor under any type of permit within 200 feet of any church or school.

We appeal to the members of our state legislature to defeat the sinister move on the part of liquor interests to allow taverns, restaurants, and hotels to sell hard liquors by the drink.

Resolved that we heartily approve the resolutions adopted by The Northern Baptist Convention which met at Rochester, May 23-28, 1934, and urge that these resolutions be made the subject of study and the basis for action by the Baptist churches of our state.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN T. SETTLE, JR.,

Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

The committee on Evangelism begs to report as follows: The actual activity of the committee has been limited by the circumstances peculiar to this time. The lack of appropriation for this work has made it impossible to hold conferences or to distribute printed material. However, the committee has been alert and has canvassed the state of the churches in respect to evangelistic passion and endeavor and are glad to report that there is quite universal interest and definite activity of an evangelistic nature throughout the Convention.

Many of the churches have held special meetings with good results; others have conducted efforts in parish evangelism, resulting, not only in new converts and the development of evangelistic leadership, but the re-enlistment of many indifferent church members. Several pastors have assisted each other helpfully. The number of baptisms has been above the average, the additions by letter large, indicating commendable activity on the part of pastors in caring for those who come and go. The large percentage of new members come by way of the Church School, a condition that is in every way desirable and gives proof of the increased attention given to evangelism in our Religious Education Program, and also by the consecrated leadership of our teaching force

The committee urges a more serious and determined effort, on the part of the Associational Committees on Evangelism, to foster the evangelistic passion among the churches and the organization of associational wide efforts in evangelism, involving some kind of special evangelistic effort in each church, the exchange of pastoral service for this work, and the intensifying of the evangelistic spirit throughout the work of the Church and School.

The committee also calls attention to the admirable program of the Northern Baptist Convention, expressed in the "Live it Through" movement and urges all the pastors to make the largest possible use of the materials provided and the actual following of the suggested program of activity and emphasis.

The committee again freely offers its free service to any church or pastor in any special evangelistic service they may be able to render and invites opportunity to be of service in this capacity. The chairman of the committee will be glad to negotiate any desired arrangement with any member of the committee or the pastor may write to any member, seeking this help.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. ALLEN,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL STANDING

During the year members of the Committee have attended three councils of ordination, as follows:

Kenneth Cooper, November 24, 1933, at East Killingly;
William H. Genne, March 19, 1934, at First Church, Waterbury;
Harold C. Bonell, March 26, 1934, at First Church, Meriden.

The changes in the ministry have been as follows:

Ten ministers have removed from the State;
One has made a change of pastorate within the State;
Four have resigned without charge;
Nine new ministers have been welcomed in the State;
Three candidates have been ordained;
And four ministers have passed to their heavenly reward.

The Committee has considered a Life and Service Record, which is a form to be filled out by ministers, showing their educational preparation, their ordination, and the churches they have served, which form may be filed at the office of the State Convention, and all for the purpose of mutual helpfulness to pastorless churches and churchless pastors. At the present moment the matter is held in abeyance.

Complying with the request of the Board of Managers that the Committee submit to the Convention a standard of qualifications for ordination, the Committee presents herewith the following recommendations as to standards of ordination:

1. The candidate for ordination should be a member of the church which ordains.
2. The call for a council of ordination should be on the recommendation of the Committee on Ministerial Standing, and should be sent to all the churches of the Association.
3. The educational qualifications for ordination should be:
 - (a) Standard college and theological studies with graduation;
 - (b) Or, standard theological studies with graduation, besides two years of college study.
4. If a candidate for ordination has not had the educational preparation listed above, ordination should not be granted until he has completed at least a two years' course of prescribed study.
5. A candidate for ordination should have completed his course of studies, and should be either a pastor, or pastor-elect, or under appointment for missionary or educational work.
6. A candidate for ordination should be able to give clear convictions of truth upon subjects kindred to, God; the Person of Christ; the Work of the Holy Spirit; the Church and Its Ordinances; World Wide Missions; and he should be able to give evidence of the implications of these truths in their relation to the life of the individual, the life of the church, and the life of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

By the Committee on Ministerial Standing,

HENRY E. HODGE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE OBITUARY COMMITTEE

Rev. James W. Higgins

Rev. James W. Higgins, pastor at Packer, Conn., died December 5, 1933, after a brief illness. He was born in Wallace, Nova Scotia, March 17, 1843. In his youth he worked as a carpenter, but in his 30th year he was called to the ministry and after some preparation was ordained as a Baptist minister. After coming to the United States in 1891 he held a number of pastorates, including that at the Packerville Church, which he had served faithfully for 25 years. He preached steadily despite his advanced age until two Sundays before his death. He was twice married, his second wife, Grace, dying just a few weeks before his death. A son, Harvey C. Higgins, and a daughter, Mrs. Lula J. Todd, of Springfield, Mass., survive him. He was always remembered lovingly in the Stonington Union Association for his gift of prayer.

He then served one year as state evangelist in Vermont. In 1913 he was called to the church in Shelton, where he gave a most notable service, during which he baptized 233 persons, and received into the church, altogether, a total of 298. GEORGE R. ATHA, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONNECTICUT WORLD WIDE GUILD

October 13, 1934

My report is just a summary of what the Guild Girls in Connecticut have accomplished in the past year under the faithful leadership of Miss Wing. As you likely know, she has been our beloved state secretary for the past fourteen years, and we are all very sorry to have her give up this work.

W. W. G. are our letters, and they mean "Worth While Girls of the World Wide Guild Working With God for the Whole Worlds Good". The purposes of our guild can be stated in one sentence: "To prepare the girls of today so that they can do the Women's Missionary work of tomorrow."

Our guild has a state standard of excellence. The guild chapter receiving the most number of points for the year receives a candlestick to be kept for one year. If the same chapter should receive it for three consecutive years, they are allowed to keep it. For the past three years the Good Will Chapter of Bristol has won it, and now it is in their possession. On Thursday, at the board meeting, the Women voted to give us another candlestick, so our state guilds now have a new one to work for.

Before a girl joins the World Wide Guild she signs the pledge which reads: "In joining the World Wide Guild, I hereby promise to engage actively in all the work of the Guild, to attend its meetings regularly if possible, to pray daily and definitely for World Wide Missions and to give to the missionary apportionments of my church." She then repeats the Covenant, which is: "Mindful of the millions who are still in darkness because they know not that the sun of Righteousness has arisen with healing in his wings; Remembering the words of Christ, who said, 'I am the light of the world'; and again, 'Ye are the light of the World'; I gratefully pledge myself to work henceforth with him; giving time, money, and prayer, that upon such as sit in darkness and the shadow of death, the light of life may shine."

The girls pledge their time. Many hours are spent in doing white cross work. This past year the girls spent over $134.00 on this work alone. We have held 20 mission study classes, and twelve of our chapters qualified in the reading contest which means that every girl in these chapters read their five required books—(two home, two foreign, and one inspirational); two hundred and ninety-two girls entered, and twelve thousand six hundred and fifteen points were made. These points not only count on the guild but also on the women's reading contest.

The girls pledge their time and money. They give plays and pageants and thus raise their money for their love gift, which is over and above their regular church pledge. This past year this gift amounted to $1,070.90.

The girls pledge their time, money and prayer. The taking part in their own devotional meetings trains them so that they are better fitted to take part in the regular church services. On the first Sunday in December the guilds throughout the world hold their vesper services, which consists of a missionary play or pageant. To close this service the girls form a circle of prayer. Each girl offering a prayer for the missionaries and preachers throughout the world.

We also have our recreational programs. We usually hold two rallies a year besides our state houseparty, which was held this year at Indian Point House, Stoney Creek. Regardless of the storm we had a very good attendance at our sessions. There were about forty girls that stayed full time; on Saturday we had one hundred at our banquet, and Saturday night seventy-two girls stayed overnight. I wish that each one of you could have been with us at our Sunday consecration service. It was lead by our guild executive secretary, Miss Alma Noble. At that service each girl present rededicated her life, and pledged herself to more consecrated service to her church in the coming year.

In closing I am asking you to assist me in forming more guilds this coming year. Have your organized Sunday School classes become guild chapters and carry on the missionary work of your church.

"I am the light of the World", and again, "Ye are the light of the world". In this coming year let us work together and help the girls to carry their Christian light and to do their part in the missionary work of our denomination through the World Wide Guild.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN BARNUM,

State W. W. G. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL RELATIONS

The Committee met at the beginning of the year in Hartford and outlined the following program of activities and objectives, which was approved by the Board of Managers:

1. It was decided to make a sustained effort to keep our churches informed on moral issues. To that end we have published in "The Connecticut Baptist" the report of the Committee on Resolutions of the Northern Baptist Convention at Rochester, and articles by members of the Committee relating to child welfare, political corruption, prison reform, the church and industry, the manufacture and sale of munitions of war, and temperance.
2. It was decided to attempt the mobilization of public sentiment among our church people on legislative matters that fall within the scope of our program as suggested by the topics mentioned above. We expect to procure representation of our churches in public hearing on proposed legislation that has to do with these matters.
3. It was also decided to seek a close understanding and cooperation with other committees of the Convention, with similar committees of the Northern Baptist Convention, and with inter-denominational social agencies for the promotion of our common objectives. Our committee, in cooperation with similar committees of other religious bodies, has exerted considerable influence on important governmental policies and industrial practices. There are several measures of pressing importance coming before the people of Connecticut for action during the year just ahead on which we will need to mobilize the sentiment of church people. The committee will surely do its best to make Christian action on social questions possible in Connecticut.

SANKEY L. BLANTON,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONNECTICUT BAPTIST EDUCATION SOCIETY

October 13th, 1934

Central Baptist Church, Hartford

The Connecticut Baptist Education Society makes its 116th report. For one hundred and sixteen years it has been helping students to secure an education to become ministers for Christ. The past year marks a sign of the change of an epoch in the history of the Church. Three of the students that received its help have been unable to find a field for their trained services. One young lady writes and informs us that she has given up the idea of continuing her course in preparation for the mission field as there seems to be no demand for missionaries. In spite of the surplus of ministers and religious workers young people are seeking our help every year. The Society is of the opinion that there is need today for highly trained and well educated ministers and is anxious to give aid to those who are willing to prepare adequately for the Master's service.

The past year the Society helped twenty young men and women at the rate of $125.00 each. Six of them finished their courses and are now ready for full time work. It has been a joy to contact these young people and to help them in their education for the Christian ministry.

MAJOR L. JOHNSON,

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE BAPTIST MINISTERS OF CONNECTICUT

October 11, 1934

PRESIDENT, Rev. Louis J. Shepler, Mystic

The meeting was called to order by the president, Rev. L. F. Requa, Southington. Rev. Robert B. Smith, Danielson, conducted a brief period of worship. Rev. Earle M. Hand, Ansonia, Rev. A. A. Gates, Hartford, and Rev. J. J. Allen, New London, were appointed by the president to nominate officers for the ensuing year.

The report of changes in the ministry was given by Rev. Elbert E. Gates, D.D., Hartford, showing three ordinations, ten removals outside the state, four resigned without charge, nine new pastors, and four deaths. Those ordained are: Rev. Kenneth M. Cooper, East Killingly; Rev. Harold C. Bonell, Meriden; Rev. William H. Genne, Waterbury.

President Requa gave a hearty welcome to new pastors who include: Rev. Leonard A. Clayton, Danbury; Mr. Glenn T. Eno, Mansfield Depot; Rev. Frank A. Tobey, Noank; Rev. H. C. Collins, Hartford; Rev. Alfred W. Jones, Branford; Rev. Lawrence Fitzgerald, Deep River; Rev. C. E. Butler, Chester; Rev. Isaac T. D. Ross, Norwich; Mr. Sargis Muatsakanian, North Stonington.

The secretary presented a proposal by Rev. Harold B. Camp, of Oakland, California, for bolstering local and denominational finances. In brief, the proposal suggested that each minister and denominational officer donate his salary for the month of March, 1935, (or whatever portion of it he could afford) and ask the members of his church to match his gift by tithing on each of the five Sundays of March. Money thus received would be divided equally among current and denominational expenses. After some discussion it was voted to refer this proposal to the ministers of the state for their individual consideration and action.

The officers presented by the Nominating Committee and elected are as follows:

For President—Rev. Louis J. Shepler, Mystic.

For Secretary—Rev. Walter S. Oddy, Montville.

For Essayist—Rev. John Milton Moore, D.D., Bridgeport.

For Alternate—Rev. J. Hybert Pollard, Ph.D., Bristol.

Rev. E. Scott Farley, Suffield, gave a very stimulating essay, entitled, "The Greeks Had a Word for It." The essayist took issue with the Greek contention that preaching was "foolishness" and pointed out the need for preaching today. Following a brief discussion and the singing of a hymn, Rev. Sherrod Soule, D. D., Hartford, presented an excellent paper on "Spurgeon—The Giant Gospeller" which challenged all present to make their ministry more fruitful. The meeting adjourned with prayer led by Rev. P. A. Kilmister, Norwich.

Respectfully submitted,

Dinner was served in the vestry of the church by the Ladies' Aid Society.

The afternoon session was opened with devotions led by Rev. H. C. Zabriskie. The report of the Obituary Committee, postponed from the morning session, was read and was followed by prayer offered by Rev. P. W. Back. The report of the Nominating Committee was accepted and the Clerk was instructed to cast one ballot for the persons nominated. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was deferred. The report of the Missionary Committee, given by Rev. L. J. Shepler, was accepted.

The Committee on the State of Religion was permitted to mail its report to the Clerk, which it did, the report pointing out, 1st—the competition of auxiliary organizations with the church as the parent of these organizations; 2nd—the difficulties of the Churches maintaining Sunday evening services; 3rd—the tendency to advance the hour for Sunday School to permit more time for other activities Sunday afternoon, away and outside the church; 4th—the financial disability of the Churches owing to the depression; 5th—the growth of foreign speaking populations rendering the work of the churches more difficult. The report closed with the following observation: "On the whole, Baptist work in our Association is not advancing, but is either remaining static, or manifesting slight tendencies toward decline." The customary fee was voted the Clerk. It was voted to pay the State Convention $35.00 for space in the Annual. The report of the Treasurer was accepted along with the Auditor's report. It was voted to have the Constitution of the Association printed for distribution among the Churches, the printing to be cared for by the Executive Committee. It was also voted to authorize the Executive Committee to secure the binding for permanent record of the minutes of the Association subsequent to 1927. The Executive Committee was also ordered to provide proper protection for the records of the Association. It was voted to include in the minutes the ordination of Rev. Howard C. Zabriskie of Preston City, at a council of the Association convened at Preston City in September last year. After a hymn and special music by the Noank choir, the Rev. E. P. Mathewson offered prayer, and the Moderator presented the Rev. William J. Day, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Winthrop, Mass., who addressed the Association on the subject: "Unshakable Things". Following the address of Rev. Day and a hymn by the Association, the benediction was pronounced and the meeting adjourned.
